

Property Description

This 2 bedroom condominium is well decorated and appointed offering comfortable living with great views of the Bay of Banderas and the newly complete main street in the Village of El Neuvo Coral de Risco (El Anclote / Punta de Mita). As a corner unit this property has extra windows along the side giving extra natural light to the master bedroom, master bathroom and the laundry room which all make a tremendous difference to the overall experience within the property. This property has a nice outside (covered) terrace which becomes an integrated part of the full living experience especially in the winter/high season months. The Faro de Mita condominium development has an extremely nice and well kept common area with a large pool, expansive gardens and a community palapa where one can enjoy the views. This Palapa has a bar and some table and chairs and bathrooms for the condominiums use and enjoyment. Faro de Mita has a privated gated entrance to access the street below and the beaches in front offering easy access.
